LEADING ARTICLES—AUTHOR INDEX

ANDERSON, Terence J. and CATZ, Robert S., Towards a Comprehensive Approach to Clinical Education: A Response to the New Reality .................................................. 727

BLOCH, Frank S., Representation and Advocacy at Non-Adversary Hearings: The Need for Non-Adversary Representatives at Social Security Disability Hearings .......................... 349

BOASBERG, TERSH and LEIFER, JACQUELINE COVEY, An Update on Federal Agency Recognition of Grantee Due Process Rights ................................................. 1139

BRINK, David R., Legal Education for Competence—A Shared Responsibility ..................... 591

CAHN, Edgar S., Due Process and Federal Grant Termination: Some Observations ................ 1147

CAPALLI, Richard B., The Emerging Law of Federal Assistance ....................................... 1153

CATZ, Robert S., Due Process and Federal Grant Termination: Challenging Agency Discretion Through a Reasons Requirement ............................................. 1067

CATZ, Robert S., AND ANDERSON, Terence J., Towards a Comprehensive Approach to Clinical Education: A Response to the New Reality .................................................. 727

CIRCO, Carl J., Involuntary Psychiatric Treatment and Other Coercive Behavioral Interventions as Criminal Sanctions: Reflections on Vitek v. Jones ................................................. 81

GREENHAW, Leigh Hunt, Use of Social Science Materials in Teaching Within the Standard Generalist Law Curriculum: A Criterion for Refined Integration .............................................. 809

HARDAWAY, Robert M., Legal and Medical Education Compared: Is It Time for a Flexner Report on Legal Education? ................................................................. 687

JONES, William C., Reflections on the Modern Chinese Legal System .................................. 1221

KELSO, Charles D. and KELSO, R. Randall, Legal Education’s Future: A Broader Horizon or a Narrow Window? ................................................................. 661

KELSO, R. RANDALL and KELSO, Charles D., Legal Education’s Future: A Broader Horizon or a Narrow Window? ................................................................. 661

LEIFER, Jacqueline Covey and Boasberg, Tersh, An Update on Federal Agency Recognition of Grantee Due Process Rights ................................................. 1139

LEWIS, John Bruce, and OTTLEY, Bruce L., China’s Developing Labor Law ...................... 1165

McCree, Wade H., Jr., TYRELL WILLIAMS MEMORIAL LECTURE, The Solicitor General and His Client ................................................................. 337

McManis, Charles R., The History of First Century American Legal Education: A Revisionist Perspective ......................................................................................... 597

MORGANSTERN, Marc H., Real Estate Joint Venture Interests As Securities: The Implications of Williamson v. Tucker ................................................................. 1231

OTTLEY, Bruce L. and LEWIS, John Bruce, China’s Developing Labor Law ...................... 1165

Pipkin, Ronald M., Entropy and Skewness in the Allocation of Students to Law Schools .... 901

REDMOUNT, Robert S., Law Learning, Teacher-Student Relations and the Legal Professional ................................................................. 853

SHAFER, Thomas L., Four Issues in the Accreditation of Law Schools ................................ 887

SHREVE, Gene R., Bringing the Educational Reforms of the Cramton Report Into the Case Method Classroom: Two Models ..................................................... 793

SIRICO, Louis J., Jr., The Constitutional Dimensions of Church Property Disputes ........ 1

STEINBERG, David, The Role of Section 2 of the Sherman Act in International Patent Fraud: “Walk Softly and Carry a Big Stick” ..................................................... 123