THE STAFF

CHRISTIAN B. PEPER, Editor-in-Chief
HERMAN A. GORALNIK, Associate Editor
THOMAS B. CURTIS, Business Manager

A subscriber desiring to discontinue his subscription should send notice to that effect. Otherwise it will be continued.

THE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

WALTER D. COLES
FRANKLIN FERNS

R. W. CHUBB, Chairman

THE STAFF

JAMES C. LOGAN
THOMAS S. MCPHEETERS
I. J. WOLF
J. D. YOUNG

RALPH F. FUCHS, Faculty Adviser
ISRAEL TREIMAN, Faculty Adviser

CONTRIBUTORS TO THIS ISSUE

RALPH F. FUCHS, A.B., Washington University, 1922; LL.B., 1922; Ph.D., Robert Brookings Graduate School, 1925, contributes Judicial Method and the Constitutionality of the N. I. R. A. Mr. Fuchs has been a frequent contributor to the St. Louis Law Review of articles concerned with legal problems of social and political import. His Collective Labor Agreements Under Administrative Regulation of Employment appears in the current issue of the Columbia Law Review.
NOTES

EDWARD S. STIMSON, A.M., Ohio State University, 1922; S.J.D., University of Michigan, 1930, submits Conflict of Workmen's Compensation Laws. Mr. Stimson is the author of Jurisdiction and the Power of Taxation, and of numerous Law Review articles concerned with jurisdictional questions.

Notes

A PROBLEM IN THE PERSONNEL OF THE FEDERAL CORPORATION

I.

The processes of government at times seem recurrent and cyclical rather than evolutionary. In the early nineteenth century the lack of a mature and adequate doctrine of the police power was supplied in this country by a resort to the governmentally owned and operated corporation as a means of controlling through monopoly or competition certain forms of economic activity. Soon, however, this form of horizontal control began to give place to an ever increasing imposition of administrative regulations from above. At the time of the World War the government had almost completely evacuated the field of business enterprise and had retired into a regulatory Olympus from whence it ruled the scene through legislative enactment and administrative orders. With the War came a temporary renaissance of the government corporation; but peace brought speedy

3 The most familiar of the War corporations are: The United States Shipping Board Emergency Fleet Corporation 39 Stat. 731 (1916); The

https://openscholarship.wustl.edu/law_lawreview/vol20/iss3/4