

Brandhorst Museum

case study
By Elizabeth O'Brien

Location: Berlin, Germany

Architect: Sauerbruch Hutton Architects

Owner: Udo + Annette Brandhorst

Year of completion: 2008

Climate: Marine West Coast Climate

Material of interest: NBK Terracotta Façade Panels

Application: facade

Properties of material: system moves water away from building envelope; helps save energy.

Manufacturer/ fabricator:
manufacturer: NBK

Sources:

Architect Website: www.sauerbruchhutton.de

Manufacturer Website: www.nbk.de/

Other case studies using material: Harvard CGIS