Product information

Germanistik is the central international journal on the study of German Language and Literature, including peripheral field. Now, Germanistik is also available as an accumulated online database. Thus, 50 years of German philology - the history of the discipline both systematized and critically reviewed in more than 60,000 abstracts - are available online and fully searchable.

Altogether, approximately 340,000 monographic studies, collected volumes and journals from the areas of literature, theatre studies, media studies, cultural history and linguistics are made accessible bibliographically.

The online edition provides extensive indexing and factual coverage for every entry to quickly supply users with information on the content of the respective book or article. The database provides a category-specific and detailed search providing differentiated and convenient access to authors, editors, article and review writers, titles, reviews and publication years. From its 20th year (1970) onward, Germanistik also provides keywords. All relevant data is cross-linked.

CRL negotiates on behalf of GNARP institutions to license specialized German-language databases for members of GNARP. The GNARP Collection Development Working Group plays an active role in identifying databases of interest to GNARP and identifying the subscription terms that would be acceptable to GNARP institutions.

GNARP currently facilitates subscriptions for its members for the electronic resources listed below:

BDSL: Bibliographie der deutschen Sprach- und Literaturwissenschaft

The Bibliographie der deutschen Sprach- und Literaturwissenschaft (Bibliography of German Language and Literature Research) was started in 1967 by Hanns W. Eppelheimer of the University of Frankfurt and continued by Clemens Köntgesesch. It is the largest and most authoritative index of published research on all areas of German philology. Long available as a hard-to-use CD-ROM, it went online in 2004 as a joint project of the Frankfurt University Library and the German publisher V. Köstlermann.

BLL: Bibliography of Linguistics Literature Online

Bibliography of Linguistics Literature Online currently has 300,000 citations, with 10,000 added annually. Articles in journals and collected studies are included from fields of general linguistics, English, Romance languages, and German and other languages to a lesser degree. The search interface is in English.

Datenbank-Paket Duden

The Datenbank-Paket Duden is a suite of reference sources in German, containing works by major German publishers Duden. 17 titles are included in the package.
Digitale Bibliothek deutscher Klassiker

A Chadwyck-Healey product, the Digitale Bibliothek deutscher Klassiker brings together fully searchable (and cross-searchable) digital editions of 133 titles in the Bibliothek deutscher Klassiker of the Deutscher Klassiker Verlag (DKV) series. Comparable to the Library of America or the French Bibliothèque de la Pléiade of Gallimard, these texts have been newly edited by leading international scholars and are accompanied by extensive commentaries. The works include a broad range of materials, from the writings of medieval German mystic Meister Eckhart and the renowned writings on war by Carl von Clausewitz and Helmuth von Moltke (more than 1,000 pages), to a complete online edition of the fairy tales of the Brothers Grimm (more than 1,300 pages).

DigiZeitschriften

DigiZeitschriften is the premier collection of backfiles for German scholarly journals. Modeled on JSTOR, DigiZeitschriften is a collaboration of 14 German libraries and 37 publishers supported by the German Research Foundation (DFG) and hosted by the Niedersächsische Staats- und Universitätsbibliothek Göttingen. As of mid-2011, the archive contains 146 German academic titles in 10 subject areas, including 340,000 articles and 3.6 million pages. Additional material is added monthly.

WBIS: World Biographical Information System

The WBIS database is the fulltext version of the microfiche collection consisting of 24 "archives," compilations of entries from biographical dictionaries pertaining to various countries and regions.

More details about each of these offers can be found in the GNARP Workspace, which is available only to GNARP members. Some offers may be exclusive to GNARP members. Institutions are encouraged to join GNARP.
