

Open Air Library

case study
By Margina Demmer

Location: Magdeburg, Germany

Architect: KARO

Owner: N/A

Year of completion: 2009

Climate: Marine West Coast Climate

Material of interest: Recycled Beer Crates, Recycled Facade

Application: Exterior

Properties of material: Originally developed from an installation of beer crates, the Open Air Library reused the façade of an old warehouse in the same neighborhood.

Sources:

Architect Website: www.karo-architekten.de