

After Hours Building

case study
By Dhay Aldhawyan

Location: Phoenix, Arizona

Architect: merz project

Owner: N/A

Year of completion: 2008

Climate: Arid

Material of interest: aluminum-clad, contemporary masonry.

Application: Exterior and interior

Properties of material: Resists weathering and vandalism. The durability and minimum maintenance extend a building's useful life, providing an enduring, high-quality appearance.

Sources:

<http://www.afterhoursbuilding.com/>