Capilla San Bernardo

Location: La Playosa, Córdoba, Argentina

Architect: Nicolás Campodonico

Owner: Saint Bernard's Chapel (the local patron saint)

case study By Rui Guo

Year of completion: 2015

Climate: Cwa - Temperate/ Dry winter/ Hot Summer

Material of interest: Reuse bricks

Application: Structure, exterior, interior, floor, pavement

Properties of material: In this no electricity and any other utility site, this project reuses the main material from a over 100 years old rural house. Using the curved surface composed by the bricks as screen to display the formation of a cross from sunlight everyday.

Sources:

ArchDaily: https://www.archdaily.com/787710/capillasan-bernardo-nicolas-campodonico