

Chemical Engineering & Chemistry Building

case study
By Juan Gonzalez

Location: Manizales, Colombia

Architect: Universidad Nacional de Colombia

Owner: Universidad Nacional de Colombia

Year of completion: 2013

Climate: Wet Equatorial

Material of interest: Concrete

Application: Structure

Properties of material: The building is constructed with reinforced concrete that opens up to views and receives natural light and natural ventilation.

Sources:

<https://www.archdaily.com/505748/edificio-de-quimica-e-ingenieria-quimica-universidad-nacional-de-colombia>