Table of Contents

Bringing Science to Law and Policy

Introduction.................................................................Susan Frellich Appleton 1
   Deanna M. Barch
   Anneliese M. Schaefer

Brain Development, Social Context, and Justice Policy..........................Elizabeth Scott 13
   Natasha Duell
   Laurence Steinberg

The Ingredients of Healthy Brain and Child Development..........................Pat Levitt, PhD 75
   Kathie L. Eagleson, PhD

A Role of Early Life Stress on Subsequent Brain and Behavioral Development........Damien A. Fair 89
   Alice M. Graham
   Brian Mills

Early Life Impacts on Later Life Health and Economic Outcomes............Diane Whitmore Schanzenbach 103

Addressing the Psychosocial Risk Factors Affecting Developing Brain of the High-Risk Infant.........................Cynthia Rogers, MD 117

A Conversation on Building Resilience and Protecting Children: An Evidence-Based Family Strengthening Approach.........................Mary M. Mckay PhD 133
   Mary Acri, PhD

Bring Science to Law and Policy: Panel Discussion..........................Bradley Schlaggar, MD, PhD 147
   Katie Plax, MD
   Susan Block, JD
   Timothy McBride, PhD
   Missouri Senator Jill Schupp
Notes

Extending Employee Protections to Gig-Economy Workers
Though the Entrepreneurial Opportunity Test of FedEx Home Delivery .................................................. Peter Gibbins 183

Discriminatorybnb: A Discussion of Airbnb’s
Race Problem, Its New Anti-Discrimination Policies, and the Need for External Regulation ..................... Jason McCloskey 203

Justice in the Jury:
The Benefits of Allowing Felons
to Serve on Juries in Criminal Proceedings ................ Sharion Scott 225

Sanctioned Unemployment:
The Impact of Occupational Licensing
Restrictions on Ex-Offenders ........................................ Annie Zhang 251