Table of Contents

Celebrating 150 Years of Women at WashU Law

Introduction: Celebrating 150 Years of Women at WashU Law,
  Nancy Staudt .......................................................... 1

Telling the Story of Justice Sandra Day O'Connor,
  Susan Frelich Appleton .................................................. 5

Pioneering Women Lawyers Who Changed the Legal Profession and Influenced the Practice of Law, Including Mediation Practice: From Barkeloo and Couzins to the Present,
  Karen Tokarz .......................................................... 15

Gender Bias as the Norm in the Legal Profession: It's Still a [White] Man's Game, Kimberley Jade Norwood ................. 25

Reforming the International Criminal Court: “Lean In” or “Leave”, Leila Nadya Sadat ...................................................... 51

It's Complicated: Reflections on Teaching Negotiation for Women,
  Rebecca Hollander-Blumoff .............................................. 77

Earth Mothers, Soy Boys, and Cool Dudes: Practicing Law While Protecting the Environment, Elizabeth J. Hubertz ............... 87
Estate Planning with Shaq and Strom: Teaching Post-Mortem
Intimacy Audits, Adrienne D. Davis ................................. 99

The Conservative Challenge to Caring for Compensated Caregivers, Peggie R. Smith ...................... 131

Sexual Violence, the Principle of Legality, and the Trial of Hissène Habré,
Kim Thuy Seelinger, Naomi Fenwick & Khaled Alrabe. ...... 155

NOTES

Leveling the Playing Field: Disability, Title IX, and High
School Sports, Johanna E. Christophel .......................... 171

Sense and Census Building: Capturing Tribal Realities in the U.S. Census, Elizabeth Hope Fink .............................. 201

All but the Rarest of Children: Miller and Montgomery’s Implicit
Ban on Victim and Community Impact Testimony in Juvenile Life Without Parole Sentencing,
Allison M. Scoggin ................................................... 227

Economic Partiality and Horizontal Inequity: The New TCJA
Interest Expense Deduction Limit, Kuai Yu .................... 249